The 2007 FOIA amendments created the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) to offer mediation services to resolve disputes between FOIA requesters and Federal agencies as a non-exclusive alternative to litigation. Re: Freedom of Information Act Request

Dear Freedom of Information Officers:

Pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 U.S.C. § 552, and your agency's implementing regulations, American Oversight makes the following request for records. The records requested herein may reside in multiple components or offices within your agency. We ask that you coordinate this request across your agency in your role as the agency's FOIA contact.

Media reports indicate that the president's former personal attorney, Michael Cohen, peddled his access to the president for profit.¹ For example, Mr. Cohen's company, Essential Consultants, made a $600,000 deal with AT&T to advise it as it attempted to win federal approval for its massive proposed merger with Time Warner. Pharmaceutical giant Novartis AG made its own $1.2 million deal with Mr. Cohen. Mr. Cohen is not the first of the president's associates to attempt to cash in on his connections to Mr. Trump: former Trump campaign manager Corey Lewandowski has reportedly sold his access and influence, too.² American Oversight seeks records to shed light on how these associates of the president have influenced federal activities, including whether they have secured special treatment for their high-paying clients.

Requested Records

American Oversight requests that your agency produce the following within twenty business days:

All records reflecting communications (including emails, email attachments, text messages, messages on messaging platforms (such as Slack, GChat or Google Hangouts, Lync, Skype, or WhatsApp), telephone call logs, calendar invitations/entries, meeting notices, meeting agendas, informational material, draft legislation, talking points, any handwritten or electronic notes taken during any oral communications, summaries of any oral communications, or other materials) between any political appointee³ at your agency and any of the following:

- Michael Cohen
- Essential Consultants⁴
- Corey Lewandowski
- Jason Osborne (jason@turnberrysolutionsllc.com)
- Mike Rubino (mike@turnberrysolutionsllc.com)
- Barry Bennett (barry@turnberrysolutionsllc.com)
- Turnberry Solutions LLC (turnberrysolutionsllc.com)

³ "Political appointee" should be understood as any person who is a Presidential Appointee with Senate Confirmation (PAS), a Presidential Appointee (PA), a Non-career SES, any Schedule C employees, any career employee detailed to the immediate office of the agency head since January 20, 2017, or any persons hired under Temporary Non-career SES Appointments, Limited Term SES Appointments, Temporary Transitional Schedule C Appointments, or an administratively determined appointment.

⁴ The search for Essential Consultants should include all stemmed variations of "consult"

- Avenue Strategies (avenuestrategies.com)

For calendar entries created in Outlook or similar programs, the documents should be produced in “memo” form to include all invitees, any notes, and all attachments. Please do not limit your search to Outlook calendars. We request the production of any calendar—paper or electronic, whether on government-issued or personal devices—used to track or coordinate how these agency officials allocate their time on agency business.

The search should include the listed individuals and entities both as keyword search terms and as entries in the to/from/cc/bcc fields of emails or calendar entries/invitations.

American Oversight seeks all records from January 20, 2017, to the date the search is conducted.

In addition to the records requested above, American Oversight also requests records describing the processing of this request, including records sufficient to identify search terms used and locations and custodians searched and any tracking sheets used to track the processing of this request. If your agency uses FOIA questionnaires or certifications completed by individual custodians or components to determine whether they possess responsive materials or to describe how they conducted searches, we also request any such records prepared in connection with the processing of this request.

American Oversight seeks all responsive records regardless of format, medium, or physical characteristics. In conducting your search, please understand the terms “record,” “document,” and “information” in their broadest sense, to include any written, typed, recorded, graphic, printed, or audio material of any kind. We seek records of any kind, including electronic records, audiotapes, videotapes, and photographs, as well as letters, emails, facsimiles, telephone messages, voice mail messages and transcripts, notes, or minutes of any meetings, telephone conversations or discussions. Our request includes any attachments to these records. No category of material should be omitted from search, collection, and production.

Please search all records regarding agency business. You may not exclude searches of files or emails in the personal custody of your officials, such as personal email accounts. Records of official business conducted using unofficial systems or stored outside of official files are subject to the Federal Records Act and FOIA.⁵ It is not adequate to rely on policies and procedures that require officials to move such information to official systems within a certain period of time; American Oversight has a right to records contained in those files even if material has not yet been moved to official systems or if officials have, through negligence or willfulness, failed to meet their obligations.⁶

In addition, please note that in conducting a “reasonable search” as required by law, you must employ the most up-to-date technologies and tools available, in addition to searches by individual custodians likely to have responsive information. Recent technology may have rendered your agency’s prior FOIA practices unreasonable. In light of the government-wide requirements to manage information electronically by the end of 2016, it is no longer reasonable to rely exclusively on custodian-driven searches.⁷ Furthermore, agencies that have adopted the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) Capstone program, or similar policies, now maintain emails in a form that is reasonably likely to be more complete than individual custodians’ files. For example, a custodian may have deleted a responsive email from his or her email program, but your agency’s archiving tools would capture that email under Capstone. Accordingly, American Oversight insists that your agency use the most up-to-date technologies to search for responsive information and take steps to ensure that the most complete repositories of information are searched. American Oversight is available to work with you to craft appropriate search terms. However, custodian searches are still required; agencies may not have direct access to files stored in .PST files, outside of network drives, in paper format, or in personal email accounts.

Under the FOIA Improvement Act of 2016, agencies must adopt a presumption of disclosure, withholding information “only if . . . disclosure would harm an interest protected by an exemption” or “disclosure is prohibited by law.”⁸ If it is your position that any portion of the requested records is exempt from disclosure, American Oversight requests that you provide an index of those documents as required under Vaughn v. Rosen, 484 F.2d 820 (D.C. Cir. 1973), cert. denied, 415 U.S. 977 (1974). As you are aware, a Vaughn index must describe each document claimed as exempt with sufficient specificity “to permit a reasoned judgment as to whether the material is actually exempt under FOIA.”⁹ Moreover, the Vaughn index “must describe each document or portion thereof withheld, and for each withholding it must discuss the consequences of disclosing the sought-after information.”¹⁰ Further, “the withholding agency must supply ‘a relatively detailed justification, specifically identifying the reasons why a particular exemption is relevant and correlating those claims with the particular part of a withheld document to which they apply.’”¹¹

In the event some portions of the requested records are properly exempt from disclosure, please disclose any reasonably segregable non-exempt portions of the requested records. If it is your position that a document contains non-exempt segments, but that those non-exempt segments are so dispersed throughout the document as to make segregation impossible, please state what portion of the document is non-exempt, and how the material is dispersed throughout the document.¹² Claims of nonsegregability must be made with the same degree of detail as required for claims of exemptions in a Vaughn index. If a request is denied in whole, please state specifically that it is not reasonable to segregate portions of the record for release.

You should institute a preservation hold on information responsive to this request. American Oversight intends to pursue all legal avenues to enforce its right of access under FOIA, including litigation if necessary. Accordingly, you are on notice that litigation is reasonably foreseeable.

To ensure that this request is properly construed, that searches are conducted in an adequate but efficient manner, and that extraneous costs are not incurred, American Oversight welcomes an opportunity to discuss its request with you before you undertake your search or incur search or duplication costs. By working together at the outset, American Oversight hopes to decrease the likelihood of costly and time-consuming litigation in the future.

Where possible, please provide responsive material in electronic format by email or in PDF or TIF format on a USB drive. Please send any responsive material being sent by mail to American Oversight, 1030 15th Street NW, Suite B255, Washington, DC 20005. If it will accelerate release of responsive records to American Oversight, please also provide responsive material on a rolling basis.

Fee Waiver Request

In accordance with 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A)(iii) and your agency’s implementing regulations, American Oversight requests a waiver of fees associated with processing this request for records. The subject of this request concerns the operations of the federal government, and the disclosures will likely contribute to public understanding of those operations. Moreover, the request is primarily and fundamentally for non-commercial purposes.

American Oversight requests a waiver of fees because disclosure of the requested information is in the public interest because it is likely to contribute significantly to public understanding of activities of the government. The disclosure of the information sought under this request will document and reveal the operations of the federal government, including how well-connected stakeholders influence government regulatory activities and policies. Selling access to wealthy and powerful individuals and corporations distorts the government's operations, undercuts its mission of serving the American people, and tarnishes the public's ability to trust the government. The news reports to date cover only efforts by a small number of companies to curry favor with federal officials, and the requested records will provide the public with critical new information about the scope of this problem. The requested records reflect directly on the integrity of federal officials, institutions, and activities, and significant media interest in these issues show that the requested disclosures will contribute significantly to the understanding of the American people.¹³ And, as described below, American Oversight has the intention and ability to disseminate the records it receives to a broad audience.

This request is primarily and fundamentally not for commercial purposes, but rather the primary interest is in public disclosure of responsive records. As a 501(c)(3) nonprofit, American Oversight does not have a commercial purpose and the release of the information requested is not in American Oversight's financial interest. American Oversight's mission is to promote transparency in government, to educate the public about government activities, and to ensure the accountability of government officials. American Oversight uses the information gathered, and its analysis of it, to educate the public through reports, press releases, or other media. American Oversight also makes materials it gathers available on its public website and promotes their availability on social media platforms, such as Facebook and Twitter.¹⁴ American Oversight has demonstrated its commitment to the public disclosure of documents and creation of editorial content. Accordingly, American Oversight qualifies for a fee waiver.

Conclusion

We share a common mission to promote transparency in government. American Oversight looks forward to working with your agency on this request. Ms Bradfield,

I am at a loss for words that the regional office has taken this long to communicate with this company and they have had to reach out. At one point 3 weeks ago they were told everything seemed fine and now they are still waiting after almost 5 months total.

Please help them or they will lose the sale. They are willing to do whatever it takes to make sure SBA is comfortable but even the lawyers are confused and most of them worked at SBA.

Jason, This is an issue for our GCBD Office, General Counsel and possibly our Office of Hearings and Appeals and not something I would be able to get involved with. Subject: Review Request

MaryAnne,

I am hopeful you might take a look at the attached and let me know your thoughts.

This pertains to a company by the name of Redhorse Corporation. Redhorse has been a certified 8(a) firm in good standing with the SBA since 2011. The SBA district office annually reviewed Redhorse and no issues were raised regarding its board structure or control. Based on this certification and completion of the annual review process for the past five years, Redhorse had no reason to believe that there were any ownership and/or control issues with the structure of its board. In fact, Redhorse relied on SBA's 8(a) certification to affirm its board structure.

After you have reviewed the document, we would greatly appreciate any guidance you may be able to provide on next steps for them. Ideally if they could come and sit down with someone in your office early next week that would be wonderful. As I am not as familiar with these issues I would not be attendance but representatives from their counsel and the CEO would be available.

Please let me know at your earliest convenience and I will let them know.

Thank you again, Jason Osborne

MaryAnne,

I wanted to make sure you were aware of an issue with a waiver request that has been continually delayed by SBA. I am hopeful that you will agree that more clarity needs to be given to the company. I would greatly appreciate the opportunity to talk about this issue with you when you have a second.

The 8(a) seeking the waiver has reached out repeatedly on this issue but keeps getting discouraging responses in return. Below is the text of a letter that I understand has been submitted to the SBA regarding the last request from SBA to the female/minority owned company (1st American Systems):

- However, the administrator has the discretion to waive this restriction under any one of five conditions, and allow the purchasing firm to take over the original firm's contracts. Our client meets the criteria for two of these conditions:
 - Ownership and control of the concern that is performing the contract will pass to another small business concern that is a program participant, but only if the acquiring firm would otherwise be eligible to receive the award; or
 - The head of the contracting agency for which the contract is being performed certifies that termination of the contract would severely impair attainment of the agency's program objectives or missions.
- As such, we filed request for waiver with the SBA/GCBD.
- We believe GCBD is incorrectly conflating terms "eligibility" with "qualifications," which has led to unnecessary 7 month delay.

MULTI-SBA-18-0898-A-000005

SBA is tasked with making certain that the acquiring firm meets the eligibility requirements (and ABSS does meet those requirements), they are not in a position to determine if the acquiring firm meets the qualifications to perform on the contract, that task is the responsibility of the contracting agency, in this case the Air Force. SBA staff is in no position to understand or adjudicate Air Force requirements.

- Our client has responded to numerous requests from SBA, adequately addressing compliance with all regulations and guidelines, yet GCBD continues to unnecessarily delay this process.
- Granting the waiver to this 8(a) firm would directly support Administrator McMahon's goal to support disadvantaged businesses.
- Congress gave SBA Admin the discretion to grant waivers for a reason, and it's appropriate to do so in this case.
- The fact that it's taken 7 months goes directly against the spirit of SBA Mission Statement and this Administration's commitment to alleviating the effects of regulatory burdens.
- SBA Administrator should look into this, not only because it's the right thing to do for our client, but because these delays may be a systemic issue experienced by many others.

I wanted to make sure you were aware of an issue with a waiver request that has been continually delayed by SBA. I am hopeful that you will agree that more clarity needs to be given to the company. I would greatly appreciate the opportunity to talk about this issue with you when you have a second.

The 8(a) seeking the waiver has reached out repeatedly on this issue but keeps getting discouraging responses in return. Below is the text of a letter that I understand has been submitted to the SBA regarding the last request from SBA to the female/minority owned company (1st American Systems):

- [REDACTED] Exemption 4
- [REDACTED]

- Section (8)(a) of Small Business Act stipulates that contracts shall be performed by the concern that initially received the contract.
- However, the administrator has the discretion to waive this restriction under any one of five conditions, and allow the contract will pass to another small business concern that is a program participant, but only if the acquiring firm would otherwise be eligible to receive the award; or

- The head of the contracting agency for which the contract is being performed certifies that termination of the contract would severely impair attainment of the agency's program objectives or missions.
- As such, we filed request for waiver with the SBA/GCBD.
- We believe GCBD is incorrectly conflating terms "eligibility" with "qualifications," which has led to unnecessary 7 month delay:
 - SBA is tasked with making certain that the acquiring firm meets 8(a) eligibility requirements (and ABSS does meet those requirements), they are not in a position to determine if the acquiring firm meets the qualifications to perform on the contract, that task is the responsibility of the contracting agency, in this case the Air Force. SBA staff is in no position to understand or adjudicate Air Force requirements.
 - [REDACTED]
 - [REDACTED]
 - [REDACTED]
 - [REDACTED]

Exemption 4

- Our client has responded to numerous requests from SBA, adequately addressing compliance with all regulations and guidelines, yet GCBD continues to unnecessarily delay this process.
- Granting the waiver to this 8(a) firm would directly support Administrator McMahon's goal to support disadvantaged businesses.
- Congress gave SBA Admin the discretion to grant waivers for a reason, and it's appropriate to do so in this case.
- The fact that it's taken 7 months goes directly against the spirit of SBA Mission Statement and this Administration's commitment to alleviating the effects of regulatory burdens.
- SBA Administrator should look into this, not only because it's the right thing to do for our client, but because these delays may be a systemic issue experienced by many others.

Good talking with you Mitch.

Say hi to John Cpin. John is one of our partners here at Avenue Strategies and is working with Metropolitan Protective Services--the firm looking to speak with an official at SBA about providing security.

John, Mitch is a good friend who was the President's Chairman in MS.

I'll get out of the middle and let the two of you take it from here. Let me know if I need to do anything else.

Mitch nice meeting you online. To give you some further background. I am trying to set up a meeting with the Metropolitan Protective Services CEO and someone at the SBA. Their website is below along with their capability statement that is attached.

<http://www.metro-protect.com>

They are interested in the SBA's New All Small Mentor-Protege Program, link is below or other ways they can work together with the SBA.

<https://www.federalregister.gov/documents/2016/07/25/2016-16399/small-business-mentor-protg-programs>

Is there anyway the CEO can have a meeting with you or someone else at the SBA sometime this week or next week as an initial first step.

Let me know your thoughts and I appreciate the assistance.

Sincerely,
John

Mitch nice meeting you online. To give you some further background. I am trying to set up a meeting with the Metropolitan Protective Services CEO and someone at the SBA. Their website is below along with their capability statement that is attached.

<http://www.metro-protect.com>

They are interested in the SBA's New All Small Mentor-Protege Program, link is below or other ways they can work together with the SBA.

<https://www.federalregister.gov/documents/2016/07/25/2016-16399/small-business-mentor-protege-programs>

Is there anyway the CEO can have a meeting with you or someone else at the SBA sometime this week or next week as an initial first step.

Let me know your thoughts and I appreciate the assistance.

Sincerely,
John

John, Mitch is a good friend who was the President's Chairman in MS.

I'll get out of the middle and let the two of you take it from here. Let me know if I need to do anything else.

I spoke with Brenda yesterday. She and most of the departments don't want to have meetings with stakeholders until they started the process and become eligible. I'll be glad to meet with your client as a courtesy to you and try to learn more of where they are, what they are trying to achieve and hopefully put them in touch with the proper counselor to guide them through the programs for which they may be eligible.

Mitch nice meeting you online. To give you some further background. I am trying to set up a meeting with the Metropolitan Protective Services CEO and someone at the SBA. Their website is below along with their capability statement that is attached.

They are interested in the SBA's New All Small Mentor-Protege Program, link is below or other ways they can work together with the SBA.

<https://www.federalregister.gov/documents/2016/07/25/2016-16399/small-business-mentor-protege-programs>

Is there anyway the CEO can have a meeting with you or someone else at the SBA sometime this week or next week as an initial first step.

Let me know your thoughts and I appreciate the assistance.

John, Mitch is a good friend who was the President's Chairman in MS.

Would you mind communicating with John and his client regarding the SBA Mentor program. This is the stakeholder we discussed several weeks ago.

Thank you very much. Call me directly if you have any questions. I'll be out all day Wednesday but should be available on Thursday.

Brenda, please meet John Cpin. John's firm represents a great local small business that is interested in participating in the mentor program both as a potential mentor and mentee (if that is a word).
